Guidelines

- All students enrolling in a Political Science Directed Reading must submit this petition.
- Students may enroll in a Directed Reading with Political Science faculty or lecturers. These instructors have sections listed under the Directed Reading courses in Axess.
- Directed Reading petitions MUST be submitted for review by the end of the first week of the quarter so that they can be approved prior to the add/drop deadline.
- Political Science majors using the Directed Reading for credit in the major may only apply the Directed Reading to the additional related course units category and must take it for a letter grade and receive a C or better.

What to Submit

Students wishing to enroll in a Directed Reading must attach a 1-2 page project description and reading list to this petition. It should also include a method of evaluation (frequency of student-professor meetings, required written assignments, final project, grading option). The instructor must indicate approval by signing below.
